

BAIT BAG

Seasick from the news cycle? Seeking release? Join BAIT BAG and find catharsis in their post-riot grrrl anthems, jagged dance breaks, and sweet harmonies.

Founded in 2018 by Fiona Robins, Claire Donnelly, and Courtney Naliboff, BAIT BAG has shared the stage with punk and indie legends Deerhoof, Screaming Females, Rough Francis, and Weakened Friends, and made friends and fans from New York to Machias.

Bide your time with their four EPs while you eagerly await the release of their full-length album in July 2022 - tour dates coming soon!

The Pattern - Single

Released March 2021

Safeword - Single

Released December 2020

Consider This A Warning - EP

Released March 2020

Tell Them You're Women - EP

Released May 2019

If They Call You Girls - EP

Released April 2019

Bait Bag - EP

Released December 2018

DISCOGRAPHY:

"...within five seconds of hearing "Girl Pushups," I became an instant fan... Add to this fuzzy guitar, tight bass and loose drums, and the end result is a fierce, punk rock bolt of thunder."

- Aimsel Ponti for The Portland Press Herald